For Immediate Release:

Chester + Company wins awards

Chester + Company won 2 Best of Show Awards at the 2009 Summit Creative Awards Show which attracted entries from over 50 countries.

One Best of Show award was for billboard creative for Tall Ship Amber from Garrison Brewing. “Great beer deserves great creative,” said Garrison Brewing President, Brian Titus, “witty and beautiful, it makes you thirsty!”

The second Best of Show award was for a Christmas newspaper campaign for client Bedford Place Mall. “We’re very excited,” said Stephanie McDougall, Bedford Place Mall marketing.

In addition, Chester + Company won Gold for a poster campaign at the Service Industry Creative Awards, a competition that celebrates creative excellence in the hospitality industry. The campaign was developed for the Duke Pubs, part of the Imago Group based in Toronto.

“Our #1 objective is empowering brands to deliver measurable and tangible results” says Chester Goluch “creative awards are a nice bonus.”

Located in downtown Halifax, Chester + Company is a Brand Advertising and Design agency with a staff of 17 super keeners and the best clients an agency could have!
