- maintenance of the equipment, notably working on gears and the canning seamer
- ensuring that all pieces of equipment are operating smoothly throughout the canning and bottling process
- working with chemicals in a safe and vigilant manner
- compliance with health, safety, and regulatory compliance requirements

General Skills

- minimum 2 years of experience in operating a canning or bottling line in the beverage industry is required
- mechanical skills are an absolute requirement
- you are detail oriented
- you can work independently and exercise good judgement in decision making
- you are multi-skilled and flexible
- you are capable of troubleshooting issues
- you can work through challenges and changes

- you have some computer skills (Microsoft Excel, Word, etc.)
- you are comfortable with the physical aspects of the job including extended periods of standing, bending, twisting, lifting, climbing, etc.

Why Garrison?

This is your chance to join a dynamic, passionate, and professional team, all focused on creating and selling premium craft beer to a growing customer base. Just a few of the extra perks include:

- Health benefits plan and Group RRSP
- year end bonus
- weekly beer allowance and discount at our retail stores
- free access to some of our community partner events

At Garrison, we recognize the importance of a diverse and inclusive workplace. We encourage job applications with diverse backgrounds, and do not discriminate based on gender, religion, race, disability, sexual orientation, age, or any other status.
